EUROPEAN POLITICAL FOUNDATIONS

Decision concerning the implementing rules relating to Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union Institutions, Bodies, Offices and Agencies and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 and Decision No 1247/2002/EC, except those implementing rules in relation to the restriction of certain rights of data subjects in accordance with Article 25 of that Regulation.

(APPF(2021/0080))

THE AUTHORITY FOR EUROPEAN POLITICAL PARTIES AND EUROPEAN POLITICAL FOUNDATIONS,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in particular Article 16 thereof,

Having regard to Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council<sup>1</sup>, and in particular Article 45(3) thereof,

Having regard to the Decision of the Director of the Authority for European Political Parties and European Political Foundations (the “Authority”) of 21 December 2021 concerning the application of decisions of the European Parliament relating to the Data Protection Officer,

Having regard to the Decision of the Secretary-General of the European Parliament of 8 June 2021 on the Data Protection Coordinator network,

Whereas:

(1) Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 lays down the principles and the rules applicable to the processing of personal data by all Union institutions and bodies.

(2) The purpose of the implementing rules relating to Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 except those in relation to the restriction of certain rights of data subjects in accordance with Article 25 of that Regulation (the “general implementing rules”) is to specify the tasks and duties of the Authority for European Political Parties and European Political Foundations (the “Authority”) as set out in that Regulation.

(3) The purpose of the general implementing rules is also to lay down rules and procedures in relation to the Data Protection Coordinator of the Authority.

of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 and Decision No 1247/2002/EC (OJ L 295, 21.11.2018, p. 39).

(4) The purpose of the general implementing rules is also to lay down procedures which will enable data subjects to exercise their rights and all persons within the Authority who are involved in the processing of personal data to fulfil their obligations.

(5) The general implementing rules should ensure that the Authority duly respects its obligations under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 without impeding it from duly carrying out its administrative tasks and functions, and in particular registering, controlling and, where appropriate, imposing sanctions on European political parties and European political foundations.

(6) Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 should therefore be interpreted in a way that ensures the ability of the Authority to fully exercise its powers as laid down in Regulation (EU, Euratom) No 1141/2014<sup>2</sup>.

(7) Furthermore, the right to data portability under Article 22 of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 only applies where the processing is based either on consent or on the need to fulfil a contract and is carried out by automated means. Therefore, that right does not apply to processing carried out in the performance of a task in the public interest based on law and the other grounds for lawfulness in Article 5.

(8) Moreover, as regards the application of the general implementing rules regarding joint controllership of the Authority with other bodies or institutions, or other entities, such joint controllerships should exist only if and to the extent that they are jointly responsible for the same single processing operations, and not where they merely intervene sequentially with thematically proximate but distinct processing operations.

(9) The European Data Protection Supervisor was informed pursuant to Article 41(1) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725,

HAS ADOPTED THIS DECISION:
